

Prior to each "Foul" call the referee will first perform this signal...

Holding Foul – A "Holding Foul" occurs when a defender holds, grabs, or pulls an offensive player (it doesn't matter if the offensive player has possession of the ball or not).

Holding Foul Signal

Then, approach the scorer's table, indicate verbally and with fingers the number and color of the offender and number of shots (if entitled).